Salisbury to Stonehenge

From Salisbury, cycle up the charming Woodford Valley to Stonehenge, stopping off at Amesbury along the way. Well worth a visit is Woodhenge – just to the north of Amesbury, a Neolithic site of concentric timber circles.

Take time to enjoy the Stonehenge landscape which is all part of the World Heritage Site and perfect place to stop off for a picnic.

Rail and Cycle

Folding bicycles can be taken on any train service and placed in the usual luggage racks. A limited number of full size bicycles can be carried as well. For rail services in Wiltshire you do not have to reserve a space, but it is a good idea, particularly at peak times. You can reserve a space at the station or contact the train operators at least 24 hours in advance.
