

Ancient Market Towns and Beautiful Villages

Wiltshire is blessed with a fantastic variety of historic market towns and stunning picturesque villages, each one with something to offer. Here are a sample of Wiltshire's beautiful market towns and villages.

Amesbury

Nestling within a loop of the River Avon alongside the A303, just 1½ miles from Stonehenge, historic Amesbury is a destination not to be missed. With recent evidence of a large settlement from 8820BC and a breath-taking Mesolithic collection, Amesbury History Centre will amaze visitors with its story of the town where history began.

Bradford on Avon

The unspoilt market town of Bradford on Avon offers a mix of delightful shops, restaurants, hotels and bed and breakfasts lining the narrow streets, not to mention a weekly market on Thursdays (8am-4pm). Still a natural focus at the centre of the town, the ancient bridge retains two of its 13th century arches and offers a fabulous view of the hillside above the town - dotted with the old weavers' cottages – and the river bank flanked by 19th century former cloth mills.

Calne

Calne evolved during the 18th and 19th centuries with the wool industry. Blending the old with the new, much of the original Calne is located along the River Marden where some of the historic buildings still remain. There is also the recently restored Castlefields Park with nature trails and cycle path easily accessible from the town centre.

Castle Combe

Set within the stunning Wiltshire Cotswolds, Castle Combe is a classically quaint English village. Often referred to as the 'prettiest village in England', it has even been featured regularly on the big screen – most recently in Hollywood blockbuster 'The Wolfman' and Stephen Spielberg's 'War Horse'. Visitors can also stop by the Corsham market on Tuesdays (8am-3pm) which is nearby.

A little over an hour's journey from central London, Chippenham offers an ideal centre for relaxation and exploration of rural Wiltshire and the Cotswolds.

Corsham

Corsham is a quiet, unspoilt town where peacocks wander freely around the streets! Thanks to the wool trade and the quarrying of golden Bath stone, Corsham developed from its Saxon origins into a prosperous town. The historic High Street consists mainly of properties from the 16th, 17th and 18th centuries, including old inns, an elegant town hall and the stately Corsham Court. The town also has a weekly market, held on Tuesdays

Known as the "Queen of Hilltop Towns", Malmesbury is England's oldest borough with a rich history over 1000 years. And, with a skyline dominated by the imposing Norman Abbey, many of the town's highlights – from the 15th century Market Cross and the Old Courtroom and Almshouses, to the narrow medieval streets, quaint alleyways and the riverwalk – can be easily discovered on foot. For market lovers, there is also a farmers' market on the second and fourth Saturday of each month (9am-1pm).

Marlborough

The handsome old staging post of Marlborough has evolved into a stylish and cosmopolitan town with its own chic café culture, offering the discerning visitor a unique blend of attractions and facilities. The High Street is one of the widest in Europe, lined on both sides with characterful old buildings housing an array of high quality shops.

Melksham

The town of Melksham evolved at a ford across the River Avon and was once part of a vast royal forest that stretched as far as Chippenham and was a favourite hunting ground of Tudor Kings. In the 19th century, the town boasted the discovery of Saline and Chalybeate springs, and an attempt was made in 1815 to develop the town as a spa that would rival nearby Bath.
